

JOB OPPORTUNITYMS-1604-GC001 Gulf Coast Area

The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) of the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) is hiring temporary workers to support the delivery of services to victims of Hurricane Katrina. We are looking for individuals to fill the following types of positions in the Gulf Coast area:

Applicant Services Representatives	$13.00 per hour
Applicant Services Leaders	$16.00 per hour
Applicant Services Managers	$20.00 per hour
Counselors	$15.00 per hour
Couriers	$11.00 per hour

(Requires a valid driver's license and applicants must provide a copy of their Motor Vehicle Registration driving record).

Individuals with bi-lingual skills are strongly encouraged to apply. Positions are temporary and require that you be available to work 12 hour shifts (typically 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m.) seven days a week.

INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW AND WHERE TO APPLY

To apply for any of these positions, please submit your resume to FEMA, Job Opportunities, U.S. Post Office Box 6789, D'Iberville, MS, or fax to (228) 523-8481. Resumes may also be submitted to the Mississippi Department of Employment Security at 2306 Pass Road, Biloxi, MS 39535. The resume should include your Social Security Number, contact information (home phone, cellular phone, etc.) a self-certification of U.S. citizenship, work experience, education and special skills. Once your resume is submitted, the Human Resource staff will review for qualifications. Positions require that you be a U.S. citizen.

PLEASE NOTE: Qualified applicants will be contacted for pre-employment screening and FBI fingerprint check for a security background investigation.

FEMA is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

JOB OPPORTUNITYMS-1604-002 -- Amended

Please note: This announcement has been amended to include the tour of duty. At present, all positions require that individuals be available to work 7 days per week, from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) of the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) is hiring temporary workers to support the delivery of services to victims of Hurricane Katrina. We are looking for applicants to fill the following types of positions in the Jackson, MS area:

Briefing Specialist	$16.00 per hour
Computer Specialist	$30.00 per hour
Public Affairs Specialist	$19.00 per hour

INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW AND WHERE TO APPLY

To apply for any of these positions, please submit your resume to FEMA, U.S. Post Office, P.O. Box 22769, Jackson, MS 39225, or fax to (601) 965-2468. Resume must include your Social Security Number, contact information (home phone, cellular phone, etc.) a self-certification of U.S. citizenship, work experience, education and special skills. Once your resume is submitted, the Human Resource staff will review for qualifications. Positions require that you be a U.S. citizen.

PLEASE NOTE: Qualified applicants will be contacted for pre-employment screening and FBI fingerprint check for a security background investigation.

FEMA is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

JOB OPPORTUNITYMS-1604-001 -- Amended

Please note: This announcement has been amended to include the tour of duty. At present, all positions require that individuals be available to work 7 days per week, from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) of the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) is hiring temporary workers to support the delivery of services to victims of Hurricane Katrina. We are looking for applicants to fill the following types of positions:

General Administrative Support	$15.00 per hour
Applicant Services Representatives	$13.00 per hour
Counselors	$15.00 per hour
Couriers	$11.00 per hour
Inventory/Supply Technicians	$11.00 per hour
Switchboard Operators	$11.00 per hour

(Requires a valid driver's license).

INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW AND WHERE TO APPLY

To apply for any of these positions, please submit your resume to FEMA, U.S. Post Office, P.O. Box 22769, Jackson, MS 39225, or fax to (601) 965-2468. Resume must include your Social Security Number, contact information (home phone, cellular phone, etc.) a self-certification of U.S. citizenship, work experience, education and special skills. Once your resume is submitted, the Human Resource staff will review for qualifications. Positions require that you be a U.S. citizen.

PLEASE NOTE: Qualified applicants will be contacted for pre-employment screening and FBI fingerprint check for a security background investigation.

FEMA is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

JOB OPPORTUNITY MS-1604-003 Jackson & Gulf Coast Areas

The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) of the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) is seeking candidates for our Hazard Mitigation (HM) efforts to support the delivery of services to victims of Hurricane Katrina. We are looking for individuals to fill the following types of positions in the Jackson and Gulf Coast areas of Mississippi:

HM Advisors	$15.00 per hour
Architects	$25.00 to $30.00 per hour
HM Building Codes Specialist	$18.00 to $23.00 per hour
Economists	$25.00 to $30.00 per hour
Engineer (Civil, Hydraulic & Structural)	$20.00 to $34.00 per hour
Environmental Specialist	$22.00 to $28.00 per hour
Flood Insurance Specialists	$19.00 to $22.00 per hour
HM Benefit Cost Analysts	$15.00 to $21.00 per hour
HM GIS Specialists	$20.00 to $25.00 per hour
HM Grants Program Specialists	$20.00 to $30.00 per hour
HM Writers (Media & Tech)	$20.00 to $23.00 per hour
HM Planners	$19.00 to $23.00 per hour
Insurance Specialist	$19.00 to $22.00 per hour

Individuals with bi-lingual skills are strongly encouraged to apply. Positions are temporary and require that you be available to work 12 hour shifts (typically 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m.) seven days a week.

Positions require that individuals possess experience and/or education in performing work that is directly related to the position that is being filled.

INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW AND WHERE TO APPLY

To apply for any of these positions, please submit your resume to FEMA, Job Opportunities, Post Office Box 22769, Jackson, MS 39225, or fax to (601) 965-2468. The resume should include your Social Security Number, contact information (home phone, cellular phone, etc.) a self-certification of U.S. citizenship, work experience, education and special skills. Once your resume is submitted, the Human Resource staff will review for qualifications. Positions require that you be a U.S. citizen.

PLEASE NOTE: Qualified applicants will be contacted for pre-employment screening and FBI fingerprint check for a security background investigation.

FEMA is an Equal Opportunity Employer.